“Art Works”

Being an artist is a natural gift and every so often I wish that I had the skills to paint and create art. There is a clay pot in my office that looks like a door stop and not worthy of a place on my bookshelf. I created that piece of art years ago and it was almost thrown away. Overtime the pot has been saved and has constantly reminded me that God is the potter and we are the clay. God’s handiwork continues to create and shape our life just as an artist creates art. The apostle Paul stated, “Anyone in Christ is new creation.” God is constantly creating new life in us through our faith. While some people are naturally gifted, being an artist is not easy for us who have attempted to paint only to find the reality doesn’t reflect the picture in our head. Artists have a way of bringing to life those images that we cherish, and religious artwork has adorned many cathedrals and churches throughout the years.

Michelangelo’s work adorns the Sistine Chapel capturing the story of faith as portrayed in Biblical scenes. One of the most painted images we see in our faith is Jesus on the cross. In my office I have a beautiful piece of original art of the crucified Christ. Along with the image of Jesus is an image of a circle that surrounds the cross. Each time I look at the painting I see my reflection in the glass that frames the picture. The painting reminds me that Christ died for us and affirms the words that many of us learned as children, “For God so loved the world that he gave his only son that whoever believes in him may not perish but may have eternal life.” God gives us new life through the words of the Gospel. Artists bring to life that word which helps us affirm our understanding of faith through visual representations.

Artists create images for others that instill deeper meaning or imagination in the viewer. The circle in my painting reminds me of the circle of life that happens for all who believe that the cross is the final word. The victory of his death on the cross completes God’s plan for the world. Every year we celebrate Easter and it marks another year for us to embrace the hope of how God’s love continues to shape our lives. God continues to create life in us just as an artist paints a picture. God gives us purpose to share his love through service, and empower others with the power of the resurrection. This Easter we have the privilege of watching Pastor Oman create a piece of artwork that will capture the story of the resurrection. In watching we too are reminded that we will be resurrected into a new life of faith.

-Pastor Robert O. Hall

Easter is a time for new beginnings and what we want to begin is the Adult Forum. Come on people; share your knowledge with us!! What is your passion that you would like to talk about? Is it quilting, gardening, book review, golf tips, healthy cooking and eating????? Don't be shy, let others know how smart you are by signing up for a Sunday morning Adult Forum. We will take over a corner of Fellowship Hall during coffee hour for about 15 minutes or so. So call Joy Lundahl 856-981-9933; or Barb Spenks 941-488-4942 to sign up. This idea has bounced around long enough, let's get the ball rolling!!

Another new venture is beginning in May. This is for ANYONE who has EVER attended one of our Grief and Grace sessions. We will be having a two-week follow-up. Check in and let us know how you are doing. Need more help with some issue, or have something to share with others? Join us on May 6th and 13th in the church office center at 10:30. Let us know if we helped you, or maybe we still can. Call Barb Spenks to register for this first ever Grief and Grace Reunion.

Now I know why we "hop" forward in the spring. It's so the Easter Bunny can hide the eggs while it's still dark in the morning! Have a Blessed Easter.

Barb Spenks, Parish Nurse

Gentle Yoga

Join Joy Tuesday's for stretching and balancing at 4pm in the Narthex.

Jan Quinn's Chair Exercise Class

Meets every Monday at 10:00am in the Fellowship Hall. All men and women are welcome to join this group.

ADULT FORUM

Coming Soon to educate, fascinate, inform and inspire you!

Like a ping pong ball trapped in a box, this idea has been bouncing around in Pastor Hall's brain for a while, and it is time to put it into action.

We would like to start an Adult Forum Corner in the Fellowship Hall during Coffee Fellowship. If you are knowledgeable or have a topic to share such as gardening, healthy food preparation, boating or sailing, care giving, how to use technology, a hobby, or an interest etc. and have a desire to share this knowledge, please let Barb Spenks or Joy Lundahl know. The forum should last for no more than 30 minutes. Let's hear from the experts!!!

A Note from the President

Early last month I was part of a wonderful workshop put on by WELCA. I can remember afterward sitting in my study and smiling to myself, I had learned a new word – adiaphora. I can't pronounce it right, but the meaning of it sure made my heart feel light. I would like to give you my layman's understanding of it. It may differ from a complete theological view point, but I like my description.

It refers to all the customs and traditions we have developed in our church service that help us relate to God. These rituals and customs are definitely bible based and go back many centuries. Like I said, they have given us order. But, were these liturgies and customs dictated by Jesus? Did Jesus and his disciples write the hymns that we sing? What Jesus did say was that there were two important things he wanted us to do to remember him. We call these sacraments communion and baptism. He never gave us criteria on how to conduct a service.

I would imagine that the church service has changed some over the centuries as it reflected what the culture was at the time. That should give us the reassurance that our church services may change somewhat in language and style, as long as we maintain our communication and worship of God.

As I sit here and think about what I hope you will take away from my "note" is that some change is okay-maybe even necessary to reflect what we are at this moment in time and that it is okay.

Yours in Christ, Lois Steketee
Congregation Council President

From the Minister of Music and Worship: Kris Bowker

Lyrics of Lent – 2019

Our 2019 midweek Lenten worship series will focus on the hymns of Lent, the songs that bring us quietly and intimately to the cross to meditate on the story of Jesus' saving love for us. The hymns of Lent—old and new, with their rich images and impressions—will help us to walk and wait with Jesus this year, to witness his suffering, and to treasure the gift of his sacrificial love.

News from Pastor Livenson

This year has been a very long, busy and exciting one with all the happenings and the new congregations that joins ELH.

- The church in Les Cayes has a new roof thanks to the Synod. Now the people are all happy because they don't have to worship under a tarp anymore. When it rains, they had to cancel worship which is the vital part of the community on a Sunday morning. Two people from the Synod and myself went for a pre-dedication and the people of the church in Les Cayes are now happy that they can return to their regular routine.
- The churches in Thiotte had their convention in February where all the churches in that area gathered to celebrate God's goodness and mercy and all their accomplishments during the year. They had visitors from almost all the churches of Eglise Lutherienne d'Haiti that came to celebrate with them as a time of Thanksgiving. From all the good messages that were preached, some of them touched a church from the Dominican Republic that came and they want to be Lutheran as well. They loved the messages that were preached. Especially those that said we are saved by grace and we are both saints and sinners, and there is always a place for love and forgiveness in God's kingdom. That means, the seeds are being sowed and the Spirit is at work.
- On the other hand, the church in Jean Rabel is now doing a preaching tour to reach out to other communities in Jean Rabel.
- The church in Jacmel opened a sewing class to teach the people of the community how to sew both as a way to make their own clothes and also to use the skill to make money.
- Every Wednesday evening, we have a Bible class at Emmanuel Lutheran Church for adults because Sunday is too crowded with all sort of activities and some people have a long way to go after church.
- The church in Anse-à-Pitres has an amazing choir with the young people that make worship every Sunday a delight. They also have a very good Sunday school for the children. The most important thing, the Good News is being preach throughout the church here.

We thank all the ladies for the suitcase they gave me the last time I was there. I sent the items to the church in Jean Rabel and the church in Savanne Zombie. They were in great need and the items are a blessing. I also give thanks to all of you who have supported me while I was there. Thank you very much!

May the Almighty One continue to bless you for being this hand that cares. I was also very blessed to be in Venice in February. I had a wonderful time there. I had the opportunity to go in Chicago that was a good blessing for the church here.

PS: My baby girl was baptized. All your prayers are appreciated!!!

The Haiti Task Force of the Florida Bahamas synod is beginning the plans for groups to visit Haiti - to see the Lutheran church work there and come home to tell about what you see. If you would be interested in adding your name to a possible trip, please let Kathie Winemiller know. Her number is 941-486-5385.

I am blessed with all our great Emmanuel members that came to the VBS meeting! I am still in need of a few more helpers. If you are available the week of June 10-14th, 9am to 12pm, please email me at kellyinsrq@msn.com or call 941-223-3583.

Pastor will be having a First Communion class on April 14th at 12noon. Lunch will be served. Parents: if you would like to have your child attend this class please let me know. All ages are welcome (up to parent's discretion).

NEWS FROM THE WOMEN OF EMMANUEL FOR APRIL

Another year is ending for WELCA before our summer break. I wish all of you a very Blessed Easter and a Wonderful Summer here in Paradise. I can't think of a better place to be while we are here on earth. It is with a very heavy heart that I am finishing my term as President. I have enjoyed working with these exceptional ladies. They all give one hundred and ten no one hundred and fifty percent to everything they do and I am so proud and honored to have been part of that.

We have changed our format for WELCA and I am sure the new format will encourage more ladies to participate. We have moved to a less formal format with less meetings and possibly more service projects. We are focusing on new ideas for Bible Studies and local services that the ladies can be involved in and we welcome your ideas and suggestions. We have a very talented and caring group of ladies that are very dedicated to supporting our church and our community. I would encourage all ladies to prayerfully consider joining WELCA and keep this very important part of our church and community moving forward.

I would like to thank the WELCA Board and all members of WELCA for their support over the past two years as President.

Pam Neal, Outgoing President

We have been blessed to find members interested in leading Bible studies, book studies and we promoted a series on racism which was led by the Venice Interfaith Council. There have been many more educational opportunities that we will highlight in our display during the month of April, and we will notify you of our upcoming classes and studies. We welcome your suggestions for future programs, and we would love to welcome new members, teachers, or study leaders to this busy committee!
